Diary of a Lune Valley Vicar by Mark Cannon

Down in the straw ...

Monday: My work PC has been inspected by a 14 year old engineer (might be older, but looks about 14), and he has discovered multiple failures on the part of 'Firm's Living Fossil' to embrace fully the IT revolution. Under relentless questioning I have to surrender and admit my trespasses. I am ticked off and, as ever, promise never to do so it again. If only I had a pound for each time I have made that promise I would be transmitting my sermons via Skype/B4RN/and a dongle from a beach in the Bahamas instead of grey Wray.

Sunday: Christmas with the children of Tatham Fells School and their service in church. In contrast to the Sunday before, the church is bursting and milling around the front of the church is a collection of camels (this year's theme 'Humph the Camel'), Kings, Mary and Joseph, a constellation of stars etc and many sprogs adorned with mum's tea towels in the proper and approved fashion. The crib gets knocked over and Our Lord's neglectful parents fail to notice Jesus on His noggin under the chancel step.

The sermon starts and it is good for infants to imbibe a dose of theology. I bring my cultured exposition of Incarnational Theology in Certain Protestant Sects to a rousing climax, thumping heavily on the lectern to emphasise the necessity of putting £5 notes in the collection when, due to my mighty muscular frame, I knock a brass candleholder out of its place and, somewhat unfortunately, onto a King's head. Said King exits stage right in a distressed state and seeks comfort and First Aid from mum.

Monday: Fully expecting more doom, possibly from the Diocesan Safeguarding Officer, I keep my head down but notice on my walk into work a humble nativity scene with one of the Kings flat on his face before the manger. The straw is clean, but it might not have been as fragrant 2000 years ago. Even the mighty kings are humbled from time to time, whereas for me, most weeks involve some self-inflicted humiliation. So I can never place myself comfortably amongst the proud, I only know that I make mistakes, fail to live up to my calling and try the Lord's patience endlessly. And this means that I also know that celebrating Christmas gives me the wonderful consolation and comfort that Jesus has been down here on my level. I could never reach Him but He can get down to me, and I suspect that the only way to get close to Him is to spend some time lying face down in the straw. You can't be lifted up until you have fallen down.

NEWS FROM OUR CHURCHES

Holy Trinity, Wray It is with great sadness we announce that a well loved member of our congregation, Eddie Rawlinson, passed away over the Christmas period. He was a true gentleman and will be greatly missed, especially his lovely smile. The church was full to overflowing which reflects the love and respect felt for Eddie by us all. The activities and services during December were well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Many thanks to everyone who helped organise the events and thank you to the young mothers who decorated the church window ledges.

We held the Benefice Communion service in our church on 30th December and it was lovely to see so many members from other churches; our thanks go to the Carol Singers. Following the service we had a good get-together over refreshments.

Our next 'Messy Church' will be on 24th February at 4.00pm and will be a pancake event! Then the March one on the 31st will be combined with Mothering Sunday at 4.00pm; many thanks to Mary for organising these extremely popular events. The congregation led services on the first Sunday of each month continue to be popular. Please note that there will not be one on the 3rd February as there is a joint Benefice Communion Service at Melling with the Bishop of Lancaster at 11.00am; the next one will be on the 3rd March at 2.30pm. We also plan to hold a charity coffee morning on 2nd March; watch out for notices. Ann Anderson/Judith Wrigley

St Peter's, Leck First, we would like to wish everyone a happy, healthy and blessed 2019. Our Christmas celebrations have been very uplifting and enjoyable including our Carol Service which was well attended and, this year, partly sung in candlelight. St Peter's School put on their usual first class Carol Service and a big thank you goes to them for decorating their festive window. The Christmas nativity play included a commemoration of the World War 1 Christmas truce which was both beautifully done and very moving. Many attended the Christmas Day communion service led by Sue and thanks go to her and to Peter for playing the organ.

We now have a fully functional loo in church. This is a wonderful achievement after many years of discussion and planning. A HUGE THANK YOU to Andrew Makinson for a first class job. We now plan to press ahead with putting in wheelchair access and a new brew corner. Further fundraising includes a Quiz on Friday 15th March in the Fraser Hall, Cowan Bridge and will be very similar in format to the very successful one we had in June last year.

Other proposed events are a Garden Party at The Old Vicarage, Leck in July and 'Open House' at The Old Manor House, Kirkby Lonsdale in the autumn.

Ann Shuttleworth/Joan Withers

St John the Baptist, Tunstall Remembrance Day was particularly poignant in November; over 40 people stood around the War Memorial in our Churchyard as our local heroes were remembered. Jean had done some beautiful poppy arrangements in Church also remembering the fallen soldiers and the horses.

During December we had our Christmas Tree Festival. We were delighted with the variety and also grateful to everyone who contributed, not only with the Christmas trees but also help with Saturday refreshments; Jean excelled herself this year and deserves a special thank you. It proved a very good community event and made a wonderful atmosphere for the Carol singing evening where donations were given towards the homeless in Lancaster. The Church looked magical with twinkling lights and candles everywhere making a wonderful setting for the crib service on Christmas Eve with a packed Church and many children listening to the true story of Christmas told to them by Mark.

The monthly Monday Club has started and in February there will be a beginners water colour class; March is marbling; April - learn how to make fabric eggs for Easter; May - water colour (2) and June will be confirmed later. These take place on the second Monday of every month with tea and cakes also available.

The Lent Lunch will be held on Friday 8th March at 12 noon in Tunstall Village Hall. We are looking forward to seeing the mass of spring flowers from the bulbs planted in November by volunteers were generously given to us by Rotary; thank you.

Sue Hunter

St James the Less, Tatham The joys of Christmas have now been followed by the dismal days of Dry January, Veganuary with Fizz Free February to come. We are still cheered by the happy memories of our annual Carol and Crib service on Christmas Eve, produced and directed superbly as always by Norman and Ann. We estimate a congregation of 140 of which there were some 10 children to balance a similar number of octogenarians! A great start to Christmas. Let's hope Plough Sunday on 13th January gets us back in the mood.

The plans for the modifications to the vestry roof mentioned before are on the starting line facing numerous 'fences' including the Diocese (Faculty), Lancaster Planning Committee and Victorian Society to mention but a few. Meanwhile, a temporary version gives us peace of mind and has attracted no adverse comments. The Diocese is also questioning our ability to administer Entwistle House if and when it is returned to the PCC; I trust we can allay their fears.

Lent Lunches and longer, hopefully sunny, days lie ahead as does planning the coming season's activities; Wray Fair catering being one of the first.

We were delighted to welcome Wenning Singers to our Plough Sunday Service on Sunday 13th January. Not only did they encourage our own rather reticent performers but their contribution added enormously to the success of Peter's well devised programme at which a real plough and real soil were blessed. The appetising smell of bacon sent us home on just the right note.

John Holt

Good Shepherd, Tatham Fells Our Christmas Coffee Morning on Saturday 1st December was a great success. The hall was buzzing with a happy atmosphere and Santa came laden with presents for the children. Over £700 was raised.

Our church was full to capacity with the children from Tatham Fells School and their families on Sunday 2nd December. The infant children in Key Stage 1 did a presentation for us entitled 'Humph the Camel'. Humph was a very grumpy camel who did not like the idea of going to worship the new baby Jesus. Our thanks go to the children who performed brilliantly and also to the staff. Mark's talk afterwards, which included a reward for remembering certain facts and the 'chalice of doom' if we got the facts wrong, had everyone in stitches.

On Sunday 16th December we had our annual Carol Service with traditional readings at 6.30pm. The service was well attended. Members of the local community did the readings. Mince pies, shortbread and mulled wine were served afterwards. The collection was sent to the charity 'Embrace the Middle East' who do great works and who provide us with our Carol Sheets for free. Our grateful thanks go to Ann for planning this service for us. The midnight service on Christmas Eve was led by Norman and Ann when the usual number attended.

Carole Butcher

St Wilfrid's Melling From the registers we have to report the death of Olga Millard whose funeral was held on December 24th. Despite the sadness of this event the range of Christmas services was many and varied.

Our Village Carol Service was presented by St Wilfrid's School and featured all the children telling the nativity story through acted scenes and readings, along with traditional carols. It was wonderful to see the church so full of people and I do not think the warmth of the evening was solely on account of the mulled wine, excellent though that was. It was also great to welcome Wennington Hall School to Church for their Carol Service once again, which this time focussed on what Christmas must have been like during the First World War. Thanks also go to Wennington Hall who for another year kindly donated a Christmas tree.

Our Christmas Fair on Friday 23rd November raised over £1,000 which helped us to complete our payment of our Parish Share. Next event a 'Murder Mystery Night' in the Institute; details appear on page 11. JAC Beeson

THANK YOU ON BEHALF OF THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

In 2018 the Children's Society celebrated 50 years of Christingle and they received our annual Benefice Christingle gift at the beginning of this year. During Advent we combined two of the Christingle celebrations with other events. At Melling the Christingle took place during the Village and School Carol Service whilst at Wray it took place within the context of 'Messy Church' At Tatham Fells it was decided to send the collection from the School Nativity Service to the Children's Society rather than that from the Christingle itself. As a result of these changes far more people than usual were able to make a donation. Consequently, as a Benefice, we have sent £391.90 made up from those three collections, with £165 from Melling, £76 from Wray and £150 from Tatham Fells. As £92 of the total collection was Gift Aided the Children's Society will be able to claim a further £23 from the Inland Revenue, bringing the total to £414.90.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICE

Our interdenominational service this year is at St Margaret's Parish Church, Hornby beginning at 2pm on Friday March 1st.

The theme of the service 'Come - everything is ready!' is based on one of the parables of Jesus (Luke 14, verses 15-24) and has been prepared by the women of Slovenia.

Slovenia was part of the former Yugoslavia but became independent in 1991. It has a population of only 2 million and is one of the smallest countries in Europe.

The Slovene region has been mainly Christian since the 8th century and although religious practice was persecuted under Tito's socialist regime some 64% now declare themselves as Christian and about 2% as Muslim. The Christians are mainly Roman Catholic whilst others belong to Orthodox or Lutheran churches.

The same service has been translated into over 60 languages and 1,000 dialects and will be celebrated in 170 countries and islands.

Here in the British Isles, some 6,000 services will be taking place - do join us at ours.

Ann Dawson

NEW ELECTORAL ROLL 2019

Once in every six years the preparations of new church electoral rolls takes place, which means that everyone has to come off the roll and re-apply. The preparation of the new rolls is this year, 2019.

A standard Privacy Notice was published in January this year for Churches to use. This can be sent out with the forms and will include the relevant lawful bases.

Anyone wishing to be put on or stay on the roll needs to fill in an Application for Enrolment form and should contact their Churchwarden or PCC Secretary. Churchwarden's details appear on page 2.

A CHURCH FOR ONE KILMARTIN MUSEUM, WESTERN SCOTLAND

Scattered about the wild western fringes of the British Isles you find the small circular ruins of ancient stone buildings. They would originally have been so-called 'beehive huts': conical structures of carefully laid stone with just the one entrance through a low opening and no windows. The photograph shows what the originals looked like. It is a reconstruction in the grounds of the Museum in the prehistoric landscape of Kilmartin Glen in Western Scotland.

They were built for a man to live in and indeed to live a holy life. In that sense they reflected the hermit cells of the Egyptian deserts where Christian monasticism had begun. (We know that there were contacts between that Eastern Christianity and our own Celtic church).

The beehive hut was then not just a dwelling, it was a holy place as well, a place where a person could meditate and live close to God. The little house was church for one. The feeling of it comes over best in an ancient hermit's poem that has been preserved.

Peter Osborne

Alone in my little oratory
With no one else in my company
That must be an excellent pilgrimage
Before going to my tryst with death
A cell remote and hidden
For the forgiveness of every sin;
A conscience upright and unblemished
On the path to holy Heaven

Thanksgiving for Thomas Edward 'Eddie' Rawlinson (1932-2018)

Wray Church was packed for Eddie's funeral. Eddie spent all his life here and was always part of our church life. Eddie's family organised a wonderful service and many memories of Eddie were shared. He had fought, without complaint, against illness for several years, and then passed away peacefully at home. The tremendous turnout at his funeral reflects just how many people, both near and far, had been touched by his kindness and grace. There was a very generous retiring collection for MacMillan Nurses and for the Church, so we will put our heads together to think of a suitable commemoration.

'Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. So we will be with the Lord forever. Comfort one another with these words.' (1 Thessalonians 4:14)

A DIFFERENT SORT OF WORSHIP

We are planning to revive an approach to Fifth Sunday services that was very popular in the Benefice some years ago. We are gathering together a team of lay people from all six parishes to help plan a service around a theme chosen by the group. You can expect something timely, meaningful and different – as well as hopefully being uplifting, thought provoking and moving. This 'Fifth Sunday' service will actually take place on the fourth Sunday (to avoid Mothering Sunday) – that is on March 24th. It will be in Melling Church at 11.00am. We hope to see you there, and ask that you try to make sure that everybody who needs a lift is offered help in getting there.

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

JOYFUL NOISE

This weekly get-together for young parents/carers and their pre-school children takes place in Wray Church each Tuesday and Mary will be there on the first Tuesday of the month.

AFTER SCHOOL CLUB

Due to a clash with Wray's swimming club, we have unfortunately had to suspend the Church After School Club. Sometimes there are just not enough afternoons in a week! We have NOT forgotten about this important age group, and are trying to put on more 'Messy Church' events as a partial replacement. (There are Messy Churches in Wray on February 24th and March 31st). We are also very much open to ideas anybody has for solving this dilemma. Watch this space and do get back to Mary Winter (015242 21784) with any ideas.
